Distribution Law Center
DRIVEN BY CONTRAST

NEWS | 26 August 2026

Congratulations to Gaëlle Serrano on her promotion to Partner at Vertice!

The Distribution Law Center is delighted to announce that Gaëlle Serrano, one of our contributors from France, has been promoted to Partner at Vertice.

Gaëlle has developed extensive experience in distribution, competition and consumer law throughout her career.

Before joining Vertice in 2024, she worked in the Distribution, Competition and Consumer department of CMS Francis Lefebvre and previously in the Economic Law department of Fidal.

She regularly contributes to legal publications in the fields of distribution and competition law and has been an active contributor to the Distribution Law Center.

The Distribution Law Center warmly congratulates Gaëlle on this well-deserved promotion.

We wish Gaëlle every success in this exciting new chapter and look forward to continuing our collaboration with her and the entire Vertice team.
