COUNTDOWN | 1 October 2021

Countdown towards entry into force of new regime on vertical relationships

As of November 2021 the Distribution Law Center will issue on a regular basis brief updates on the preparations for the new block exemption regulation on vertical agreements.

This countdown will provide hands on insight into what is cooking at the EU level. Important developments will be placed in context and areas where legal certainty is not guaranteed will be highlighted.

Further developments with the draft texts will be commented upon without delay.

If you want to be really informed, keep an eye on the countdowns of the Distribution Law Center.
